

On the Rock River: Right now there is a 'no wake' zone, and obviously there's a lot of boaters out there that do not understand what 'no wake' is. So maybe they should just chain it off so people can't put their boats in when it's this high or put the speed right next to 'no wake.' It's ridiculous that this is the law and people aren't abiding it.