

On Lake Koshkonong: I'm a property owner on the lake and support the legislation to limit the DNR. We've been working to get water levels higher for about two years since the court decision, and the DNR has ignored us. We want someone to listen and help property and business owners enjoy the lake a lot more.